Mrs. J. Bateman was here from Berkeley the latter part of the week. She made the trip especially to assist in the Episcopal church entertainment, which was held last night in Union Hall.

Visit New Embarcadero Bridge

Supervisor J. H. Weise, accompanied by Supervisors Patten, Kipp, Green and Hutchinson, came down from Santa Rosa last Monday by automobile and inspected the new stone bridge across Sonoma creek at Embarcadero, recently constructed by contractor Newman of Napa for Sonoma County. They found the bridge one of the most substantial structures of the kind in the county and were more than satisfied with contractor Newman's work. The bridge will be accepted and put in commission at once.

Sheet and Pillow Case Dance

A sheet and pillow case dance was held at the High School on Friday evening of last week, and was greatly enjoyed by all who attended. The assembly hall had been beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and red crepe paper for the occasion. Punch was served between dancing, which was kept up until 12 o'clock, the Pauli orchestra furnishing the music.

Landsborough's Bondsmen

The parties who went on the bond of Jas. A. Landsborough, charged with violating the election laws, were G. S. Harris of this place and Jas. B. Morris of Agua Caliente. In last week's issue Theodor Richards was named in these columns as one of the bondsmen. This was a mistake caused by our reporter being misinformed.

PARENTE VILLA BURNS TO GROUND

Place Discovered to be on Fire by Mrs. Charley Miller, wife of the Lessee, at 11:50

O'clock Tuesday Night

Parente's Villa, at Verano, was burned to the ground last Tuesday night near midnight. So fierce were the flames that nothing in the main building was saved. Everything went up in smoke and flame. The near-by cottages were out of the fire zone and were saved.

The villa has been under lease to Charley Miller, the well-known heavy-weight boxer, who is now absent in the East with his manager, L. Parente. The premises were in charge of Mrs. Miller and a man care-taker, and these were the only persons on the premises when the fire broke out, and they were powerless to stay the flames.

The origin of the fire is unknown but is supposed to have started from a defective flue.

The villa was built a few years ago by the Parente Bros., who having lost their liquor license last spring, leased the premises to Charley Miller for a term of years. The Parente Bros. spent between $25,000 and $30,000 on the place, considerable of the amount being put into the main building which was entirely destroyed by Tuesday night's fire. It was one of the large resorts of Sonoma Valley, but had been doing little business since losing its liquor license.

As to the amount of insurance on the premises we are not advised. It is possible the Parente Bros. may rebuild as the burned building is located on a valuable tract of land and is surrounded by numerous cottages.

Thanksgiving Eve Ball

The members of Sonoma Valley Council, No. 45, Young Men's Institute, will give a Thanksgiving Eve ball in Union Hall on Thanksgiving eve (Wednesday, November 26th). Prizes will be awarded to best sustained characters, etc. Don't fail to attend.

May Train at Boyes Springs.

The San Francisco Chronicle in a recent issue in its sporting columns says:

"It is possible that the Chicago White Sox will locate at Boyes Springs next spring to put in their training for the American League season. Dr. Parramore has approached D. W. Long with an attractive proposition, but Modesto and Watsonville, besides Paso Robles are in the field to get the white hosed players. No selection will be made until Charles A. Comiskey and his party arrive in San Francisco on Thursday."

Arrangements have already been made for the Sox to go to Boyes Springs again and if the Sox locate there it will fill the place pretty well with diamond artists. Still there is room to spare and plans are under way for the placing of another ball park, which would afford plenty of room for all. Then there would be an advantage in that the Sox and Sox could play against each other and get a lot of good practice. Boyes Springs is an ideal training camp, one of the best the Sox have had since they started out on spring training jaunts.

California Telephone & Light Co. and Railroad Commission

Fred L. Wright, President and principal owner in the California Telephone and Light Company, appeared before the Railroad Commission in San Francisco last Monday in connection with his application for permission to issue $50,000 preferred stock and $100,000 of bonds for the purpose of increasing the service of the company in Mendocino County and other places. The application was favorably received and will undoubtedly be granted.

MRS. H. E. BOYES DIES IN SAN DIEGO.

Lived in this Valley for Over
30 Years and With Her Husband, Capt. Boyes, Founded
Boyes Hot Springs.

Mrs. Boyes, wife of Capt. H. E. Boyes, founder of Boyes Hot Springs, the most famous springs in all California, is dead. She passed away at her home in San Diego last Monday night.

It is hardly a year ago that Capt. and Mrs. Boyes, after a residence at Boyes Springs for over thirty years, disposed of El Mirador, their beautiful home overlooking the Sonoma Valley on a knoll a short distance from the famous resort, and other belongings in this valley and moved to San Diego.

During the Boyes long residence here they dispensed princely hospitality at their home and entertained many notables under the roof of their mansion. Mrs. Boyes was always the amiable and gracious hostess on these occasions and being a highly cultured woman a visit to their home was a real pleasure to every one who crossed its threshold.

Mrs. Boyes, who was an Englishwoman to the manner born, was sixty-five years of age when she passed away. She was a daughter of the aristocratic Edwards family of Nes Strange, England, her first husband being an army officer of high rank stationed in India. Here it was she spent her young married days and became a great sportswoman among the army contingent. She was an expert horsewoman and rifle shot in those days and a noted hunter for big game.

Her first husband having died, the deceased married Capt. H. E. Boyes and came to California, locating in this valley in the early eighties. While here this worthy couple did more than their share toward advancing the interests of the valley. They were always wide open for that purpose, and their energy was apparently inexhaustible to help every public enterprise along. To those who knew Mrs. Boyes, as did the editor of this paper, the death of this good woman creates a void in this world that will be hard to fill, and hundreds of friends in her old Sonoma Valley home will sincerely mourn her taking off because she was a noble woman, a staunch friend and a good neighbor.

Congregational Church, Nov. 16

I H. S. Jesus, the Savior of men. Mythology had gods to placate, but the truth is that our God would placate us. We are little pointers. We do not enjoy His friendship because we will have nothing to do with Him. Our notions of God makes mythology of the Twentieth Century that is like the ancient Mythology, in that it is all wrong. To walk with God one must be clean and decent. It is too much trouble for us to keep fit. We can't carry water on both shoulders. We can't serve two masters. In addition to that great truth we do not take the trouble to inform ourselves. The text next Sunday morning will be: "What nation is so great, who hath God so high unto them?"

Sonoma Y. P. S. C. at 6:30 p. m. Henry Webber will be the leader.

The brotherhood of man is an eternal truth. We want to show this truth to be a baseline whether you feel it or not. About it all progress turns. Upon it all mitigation of earth's sorrow and sin comes to us. There is another fact. We know we are brothers and forget it every time we ought to remember it. We can show you a remedy to cure forgetting and not charge a dollar a bottle, but I am afraid you want to forget sometimes. We will remember that this subject is our topic in the evening worship November 16th.

T. M. PRICE, Pastor

Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

N. J. Dowdall was a visitor to the county seat Monday.

The second grand raffle given by the El Verano Development Association proved a very pleasant and successful affair.

If the weather holds out it is expected that there will be a large crowd at the turkey shoot to be held at Steckmeyer's Sunday.

Sailor Grandy of Vallejo, accompanied by about fifteen others and about as many deer hounds, arrived here Sunday morning and struck out for the foothills in quest of rabbits.

Some of our county officers and citizens passed through here Sunday night after their attendance at the California Development Board convention held at Hanford last week. They occupied a special Pullman car attached to the regular evening local.

INTERESTING STORY OF A "LOST" WATCH

Passenger on Southern Pacific
Throws Time Piece Away
but Much to His Dismay
it is Restored to Him.

Charles Craig Westerbrook is today the proud (?) possessor of a much battered watch, still going but of doubtful use, and through no fault of his own. He did his best to throw it away on a Southern Pacific train, but, like the proverbial cat, it came back, thanks to the vigilance of a signal maintainer and the railroad's lost and found bureau.

When Westerbrook bought the watch, it was a perfectly good time piece. Something happened last week and it started to lose an hour or so every day, no matter how well he wound it or how carefully he re-set it. Wednesday, all out of breath, he ran into the San Mateo depot and jumped on what he thought was the 8:40 train to San Francisco. The conductor informed him it was the 9:30 express.

A brakeman in the vestibule saw him gasp and fume, and saw the watch go flying out between the cars. He heard Westerbrook say "there goes that ---- watch," and other words not reported. "Hey," he yelled to signal maintainer, J. A. Bunds, who was standing along the track. "Get that watch. A fellow here just dropped it."

And so it came back. One hand was missing, and the crystal and works gathered up some twenty feet apart, were recovered. It was turned into the division superintendent and sent to Westerbrook by express.

Westerbrook has expressed his gratitude in the following letter:

Mr. T. Ahern,
Division Supt., S. P. Co.

"I got the watch. Thanks. It is running, though I believe not so badly as before. You surely have a system, when a man can't even throw anything away without your recovering it for him. Reminds me of the suicide law. Can't kill yourself and can't throw your property away. Next time I want to get rid of that watch, I'll try some other road and watch for a desert and a dark night."

Very truly yours,
Charles Craig Westerbrook.
P. S. Tell the signal maintainer he is a brick and so is the brakeman.
